No. S.D. 7204–R. 24-49-355, dated Bangalore, the st March 1950.

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (2) of Rule 81 of the Defence of India Rules as applied to Mysore and continued by the Supplies, Services and Miscellaneous Provisions (Temporary Powers) Act, 1947, (XX of 1947), the Rajpramukh of Mysore His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to direct that the following further amendment shall be made in the Mysore Food (Restriction of Service of Meals by Catering Establishments and others) Order of 1949, and to direct further with reference to sub-rule (1) of Rule 119 of the said rules that notice of this amendment shall be given by publication in the Mysore Gazette and by the issue of a Press Note :—

For clause 6 of the said Order, the following clause shall be substituted, namely :—

"6. (i) No person shall in connection with any marriage or funeral invite for taking cooked or prepared food or serve or provide or supply cooked or prepared food using rationed articles, for more than fifty persons other than the persons shown on the Ration Cards of the persons performing the said marriage or funeral.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-clause, in the case of areas where statutory rationing is not in force, the corresponding entries in the "H.S. 1" Form or Identity Cards shall be deemed to be the entries in the Ration Cards.

(ii) No person shall in connection with any marriage serve, or provide or supply more than two meals for each person invited for such marriage, and no person shall in connection with any funeral serve, provide or supply more than one meal for each person invited for such funeral.

(iii) Save as otherwise provided in this Order, no owner or other person in charge of a Catering Establishment shall cater for any gathering or party of more than twenty-five persons at a time, and no person shall serve, provide or supply any food except liquid refreshments, nuts, fruits (fresh or dried), potato chips and preparation of gram or gram products, sweet potatoes, bananas, tapioca and groundnut cake flour with jaggery, salt or ghee, oil or vegetable oil products, in any public or private entertainment of more than twenty-five persons at a time, except with the previous permission in writing of the Director of Food Supplies in Mysore or of any other officer authorised by him in this behalf."

By Order of His Highness the Maharaja,
